The Fifth Sunday of Lent 20th & 21st March: We come near the end of our Lenten Pilgrimage and begin to focus on the celebration of Holy Week. It is a chance to take stock of how we have progressed with the task of personal and spiritual renewal. It is also a time to begin to think about how we will grasp the opportunity that this year’s Holy Week brings to further that process by walking with Jesus through his passion, death and resurrection. The Scriptures today portray Jesus on the most challenging but also the greatest moment of his life of love. They challenge us to ask ourselves what will be my legacy in life?

A Night Prayer:

At night, A Quiet Mind.

You look on me with kindness Lord.
The joy that you give me is much greater than the joy of those who have plenty of everything.
Shadows are lengthening,
Evenings drawing on,
And with the setting sun
Another day is ending.

This day we have shared lives.
Stay with us now as the sun begins to fade.
Stay with us now at the ending of the day.
Stay with us now and chase away our fears.
Darkness has no power,
Whenever you are near.

As soon as I lie down, I go quickly to sleep.
Lord, keep me perfectly safe. Amen.

Thought: No one can give you better advice than yourself. (Cicero).
