Essential Necessities for the people of Ukraine: Sincere thanks for the many boxes of essential necessities left into John and Susann Cowan, Pallas and into both Tynagh and Killeen church during the week. Your kind generosity will be much appreciated by the people of Ukraine.

Join the Conversation: Diocese of Clonfert Synodal Pathway Online Survey on the Future of our Faith Communities. We invite everyone resident in the Diocese of Clonfert to complete this short online survey. The responses to this survey will inform our submission as a Diocese to the Universal Synod. They will also provide invaluable learning for the Diocese and its Parishes. The survey can be accessed at www.clonfertdiocese.ie. Submissions should be made before 31st March 2022.

Ukraine - Donations to Help and Prayers for Peace: We continue to remember the people of Ukraine in our prayers. I received this week €1300 and I have forwarded €1300 to the Diocesan Office to assist the Ukrainian people at this time.. You can continue to contribute, by placing your contribution in an envelope marked Ukraine and placing it in the collection box in church or into my house. All donations will be forwarded to parishes known to us in Ukraine to assist those most in need at this terrible time.

Shragh Hall '45 Cards: every Monday. Hall open from 7.30 for 8pm Start.

A Very Happy St Patrick's Day: to all of you and your families, and to all Irish people living in many countries throughout the world.

Thought: May the best day of your past, be the worst day of your future.
